

Internal Affairs: Legal and Operational Issues (3 days) December 6-8, 2010 ♦ Athens, GA

ATHENS- CLARKE COUNTY POLICE IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE WILL COSPONSOR AN INTERNAL AFFAIRS: LEGAL AND OPERATIONAL ISSUES PROGRAM

A police agency's willingness to meet public expectations of unquestionable ethics is demonstrated by a responsive, fair internal affairs process that clearly shows the police officers and community the department's core value of integrity. A strong internal affairs program can boost morale and motivation internally, promote community interaction and assistance, and possibly curb today's increasing litigious trend. This course is designed for chiefs, commanders, supervisors, and internal affairs/professional standards unit managers and investigators who are central to the integrity process.

Learning Objectives:

At the conclusion of the course, participants should be able to do the following:

- Define the objectives of personnel investigations
- Explain the legal and often employee contract requirements for administrative and criminal investigations
- Employ a systematic method to assemble a case file and conduct an internal investigation
- Assess the value of early warning processes to proactively identify and address potential problems
- Explore the investigation of a police shooting or in-custody death and the internal affairs investigator's role
- Discuss the implications of police force cases and the importance of a sound policy for consistent, comprehensive officer reporting of use-of-force incidents
- Evaluate the impact of civilian oversight on law enforcement, its various forms and nationwide trends
- Understand IACP's Model Policy concerning domestic violence investigations when a police officer is involved
- Analyze recent legal decisions affecting internal affairs investigations.

Confirm the status of this course with IACP before making non-refundable airline reservations.
